Introduction

The term of the 13th Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories ended on October 21, 1999. The Commissioner of the Northwest Territories signed the Writs of Election requiring the Chief Electoral Officer to issue the Writs on October 22, 1999 and have them returned on January 6, 2000.

Electoral Districts

The Report of the NWT Electoral Boundaries Commission 1998 was tabled and debated in the Legislative Assembly in October 1998. However, the Report's recommendation for two additional seats for Yellowknife was not adopted by the Legislature. A group of citizens named the Friends of Democracy challenged the 14 seat Legislative Assembly under Section 3 of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. They argued that the urban areas would be grossly under-represented in the 14 seat Legislature remaining after division of the NWT. On March 5, 1999, the NWT Supreme Court ruled in favour of the Friends of Democracy and declared the electoral districts of Yellowknife North, Yellowknife South and Hay River invalid. Initially, the Legislative Assembly was given until April 1, 1999 to make the necessary changes to comply with the Charter, however, an extension was later granted giving the Legislature until September 1, 1999 to amend or replace the electoral districts as prescribed in the Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act. Bill 15, which set out the boundaries for a 19 seat Legislature, was introduced in the House in April and, after public hearings in five communities, received third reading and Assent on July 30, 1999.

Electors

To be able to vote in the territorial election, eligible electors must have been Canadian citizens, 18 years of age or older on polling day and have been a resident of the Northwest Territories since December 6, 1998.

Enumeration took place between September 9 and 17, 1999. A total of 20,184 eligible electors were placed on the preliminary list of electors. Elections Canada adapted their ECAPLE (Elections Canada Automated Preliminary List of Electors) system to assist in the generation of the preliminary list of electors and the official list of electors.

Revision of the preliminary list of electors took place between October 22 and November 8, 1999. A total of 831 names of electors were added to the list while 157 were removed. The total number of names to appear on the official list of electors was 22,022 which included the 1,164 electors registered in the electoral district of Hay River South, where the candidate was elected by acclamation.

Candidates

Prospective candidates had ten days to file nomination papers with the returning officer in their electoral district. A total of 65 residents filed their nomination papers by the 2:00 p.m. deadline on November 1, 1999. One candidate withdrew before the 8:00 p.m. deadline on nomination day and that person's name did not appear on the ballot paper.

Voting

With the acclamation of the candidate in Hay River South, there were a total of 110 polls in the remaining 18 electoral districts. Voting took place at 22 advance polls on November 25, 1999, where 346 eligible electors turned out to mark their ballot. This was the second territorial election where incarcerated electors serving sentences of two years or less in correctional facilities in Fort Smith, Hay River and Yellowknife were able to vote and 82 did so.

Amendments to the Elections Act in 1997 meant that two new voting opportunities were available in this election. Voting in the office of the returning officer was very well received with 664 voters casting their ballot using this method. Voting by special mail-in ballot was also introduced at this election and a total of 67 electors marked their ballot and mailed it back to the office of the Chief Electoral Officer before the deadline.

A judicial recount was conducted in the electoral district of Yellowknife South. Section 137(1) of the Elections Act requires the returning officer to apply to a judge for a recount if the number of votes separating the candidate receiving the highest number of votes and any other candidate is less than 2% of the total number of votes cast in the electoral district. The judicial recount in Yellowknife South confirmed the results of the official addition.

Election Results

As was the case in the 1995 territorial election, CBC Television, CBC Radio and other media outlets gathered at Election Central '99 in the Great Hall of the Legislative Assembly to broadcast the unofficial poll-by-poll results across the Northwest Territories as they came in.
